

NAVAJO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS PROCLAMATION

"Child Support Awareness Month"

WHEREAS, it is the sincere desire of Navajo County to diligently serve the citizens of our county and raise awareness for important issues in our communities that involve our youth; and

WHEREAS, children need both of their parents to be engaged in their development to provide for the emotional and financial needs which exist; and

WHEREAS, providing financial support to a child represents a foundational part of parental responsibility and consistent financial support minimizes conflict between parents, ensures a greater opportunity for involvement of both parents, and increases the likelihood of children to reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS, the successful delivery of child support services reduces the ultimate costs of welfare services and other programs to the community, while providing better stability for children and families; and

WHEREAS, a parent can be actively and successfully engaged with their children regardless of their marital status.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Navajo County Board of Supervisors that the month of August 2013 is designated as "Child Support Awareness Month" in Navajo County, and commends the County Attorney's Office for their dedication in delivering child support services to the residents of Navajo County.

PASSED, ADOPTED AND APPROVED by the Board of Supervisors on August 13, 2013.

Jonathan M. Nez
